Why ACCA DipIFR?

After the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) issued a notification announcing a roadmap for implementation of Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) converged with IFRS during February 2015, Ind AS are adopted in a phased manner from the financial year (FY) 2016-17 for certain class of Indian companies. As per the notification, all listed companies irrespective of their net worth and other non-listed companies having net worth more than 250 crores are now required to comply with Ind AS. NBFCs are also required to comply with Ind AS from FY 2018-19.

Diploma in IFRS (DipIFR) is an international qualification in IFRS developed by the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA), a leading professional accounting organisation. DipIFR course is designed to develop working knowledge on IFRS, providing an in-depth understanding of the concepts and principles of IFRS and their practical application. DipIFR qualification raises your professional knowledge of IFRS to the next level giving a competitive edge in the international marketplace.

Objective of DipIFR program

On completion of this program the participants will acquire:

- In-depth understanding of key IFRS principles and concepts.
- Skills necessary for preparing financial statements under IFRS.
- Understanding key differences between Indian GAAP, IFRS and Ind AS.

FinPro's DipIFR training program

- Various programs (Full Course, Part 1, 2 & 3 of Full Course and Revision / Fast-track) covers recorded training sessions on the topics included in different courses.
- Each session will cover theoretical aspects of each standard and relevant practical issues.
- Mock examination shall be conducted to help participants prepare well for the examination.
- This training program will assist participants to appear for DipIFR examination to be conducted in June and December.

ACCA assessment:

DipIFR is assessed by a single three-hour descriptive Computer Based Examination (CBE).

December 2020 onwards this examination has been replaced from written to computer based.

Examination is held twice a year in June and December.

DiplIFR Full Course, Part 1, 2 & 3 of Full Course and Revision / Fast-track sessions:

Sometimes, students would like to study only important topics before examination instead of studying the whole syllabus in detail, due to paucity of time or for other reasons. Thus, for the convenience of students, the Full Course has been broken down to further 3 different parts as Part 1, 2 and 3 (each part contains specific number of topics).

Apart from Part 1 to 3 of Full course, our Revision / Fast-track batch covers the entire syllabus excluding 6 minor topics, with discussion on 50+ past examination questions within just 45 hours. This course will help students who have already studied the syllabus at length or have prepared as a part of CA Final course etc. to revise quickly for this examination.

My experience with FinPro for class for Diploma in IFRS is very effective. The faculty is very professional and has in depth knowledge of the subject. The method of teaching is very details. All the minute details are very well explained and in a way that students can understand. if any one is aspiring for Diploma IFRS exam, will definitely recommend this class.

Sanjay Kushvaha

Self study is must for clearing any exam; but proper guidance is equally important. I am content and satisfied that I chose FinPro for my IFRS classes which helped to clear DipIFR exam with descent score. Our tutor Amit Darekar is very passionate about teaching and the zeal and fervency with which he teaches makes us think deep inside and get our acts right. He is very particular and clear in his teaching methods. Conceptual clarity is focused throughout the class with elaborate discussions. His all lectures, study materials , query resolution sessions before exam helps during self studies and before exam also. I'm thankful to entire FinPro faculty for great support since inception.
